MRS. WADE ACCUSED

Indicted Jointly With Mrs. Harris for Forgery.

TWO HELD FOR MURDER

Grand Jury Also Returns True Bill for Manslaughter Against Anderson.

Mrs. Adell Winifred Wade and Mrs. Josephine Harris were jointly indicted today by the grand jury for forgery and "uttering." The women are alleged to have signed the name of William Schoneberger, mortgage master, as an indorser on two promissory notes signed by Mrs. Wade, one for $224, dated December 15, 1910, and the other for $280, executed December 12. The indictment charges the notes were "uttering" or passed as genuine on Edward P. Powers and Martin De Massa.

Mrs. Wade lived at 206 E street northeast and Mrs. Harris at Capitol Heights. Mrs. Wade, it is alleged, was conducting a "high finance" scheme, or loaning money for small investors and paying high rates of interest. Mrs. Harris, it is understood, claims she was only an employee of Mrs. Wade in collecting money and carrying interest payments to the investors.

Mrs. Wade was sought for several days by the police and was apprehended in the southeastern section of the city, while attempting to flee. Her suit with which to disguise, according to the police, her little girl, who accompanied her. Mrs. Wade wore a wig, it was stated, and denied her identity when arrested.

Two Indicted for Murder.

Murder in the first degree is the charge contained in an indictment returned against George William Williams in connection with the death of Ananias Shelton January 15. Williams is charged with assaulting the deceased, using a sharp metal instrument, a description of which is unknown to the grand jury. The assault occurred January 9 and Shelton lingered six days before dying.

Frank Mannarino, an Italian fruit store proprietor, who also killed a man in-law, Frank Cristando, in his store on lower Pennsylvania avenue, December 23, was indicted today for murder in the second degree. Cristando died on Christmas day.

Manslaughter is charged in an indictment against Charles Anderson, colored. It is alleged that March 11 last Anderson cut Joseph Auburn, a waiter in a cafe, in the neck, inflicting a wound from which the waiter died the next day.

Another Charge Against West.

Hume H. West, alias Lieut. Commander Henry Knowlson, United States Navy, who is in jail awaiting trial on charges of forgery and false pretenses in connection with securing $3,200 worth of bonds from a local broker, and a diamond ring valued at $550 from a jewelry firm, was again indicted by the grand jury today. The additional charge is that West stole money order blanks from a substitution in a local drug store and forged and passed them.

Only five alleged forged money orders figure in the indictment, covering in amount about $100, but the post office inspectors charge that eighteen such orders were stolen and seventeen passed in all, many of them in New York state.

Other indictments include the following: Isadore Glasser, receiving stolen property; Frederick Owens, assault with dangerous weapon; George A. Roberts and Dudley Moore, robbery; Frank West, depredation on private property; William Fortune and William K. C. deputation on private property; William Z. Brown, grand larceny; Walter Dolby, rape and assault with intent to rape; Isadore Opheim, embezzlement; Benjamin Minor, alias Bennie Minor, grand larceny; John M. Hale, grand larceny; Charles R. Johnson, false pretenses and James A. Johnson, housebreaking.

The report concluded the services of the present grand jury. A new panel will be sworn this week.

Great Purchase of "Run-of-the-Mill" SEAMLESS BLEACHED SHEETS, Regular 59c, 69c and 75c Qualities, 29c

Never in the history of this store have such values been offered—this is one of those rare and unusual occurrences that set the whole town wondering and create a furore among appreciative buyers.

We bought an immense quantity of fine quality SEAMLESS Bleached Sheets at a very low figure because they are classed as "run-of-the-mill" and are in irregular lengths. Some are 81x77, others are 81x81, 81x80, 81x86, 72x77, 72x81, and some are 81x90.

They are made of the most famous brands of wide sheeting cotton, but we promised not to advertise the names. A great opportunity for proprietors of boarding houses, hotels and for housekeepers to secure a supply of SEAMLESS Bleached Sheets at astonishing small cost—29c each for regular 59c, 69c and 75c grades.

12½c to 16c Pillow Cases, 9½c Each. 150 dozen "run-of-the-mill" Bleached Pillow Cases, made of superior grade pillow-case cotton, hand torn and ironed, finished with good-sized hem.

Various sizes, including 50x36, 48x36 and 42x36. They are subject to slight imperfections, which do not interfere with the appearance or serviceability. In the lot you will find all the best known brands, such as Mohawk, Pequot, New York Mills, etc. Choice of regular 12½c to 16c grades for 9½c each.

UNION SUITS, $1.00 Value, 50c

Lot of manufacturer's seconds of Women's Fine Quality Lisle Union Suits at half price. The faults are trivial and do not hurt the appearance or wear in the least. Low neck and sleeves, with umbrella pants, trimmed with silk-crochet yokes; silk tape at neck and arms. Pants trimmed with val or torchon lace.

35c Tan Dress Linen, 16c Yd.

Two important features about this offering of Tan Dress Linens at 16c a yard. It is WARRANTED ALL-PURE LINEN, and measures full 36 inches wide. Couple these two facts with the low price and you will count this one of the most unusual values offered in a long time.

It is a superior close weave that washes beautifully and makes the most desirable skirts and coat suits for warm-weather wear. We will sponge and shrink these linens without extra charge. Sale price, 16c a yard instead of 35c.

39c and 50c Imported Silks At 19c Yard.

They are the finest quality Imported Silks, full 27 inches wide, and are not to be confounded with the usual Nagasaki and Tokio silks sold at similar prices. Pure silk, interwoven with an occasional thread of linen, which adds strength and durability.

There is practically no limit to their usefulness. In dainty new weaves—self-colored satin designs, in scroll and other neat effects. It is the ideal material for frocks that are to be worn under gaslight. The fabric par excellence for luncheon, tea, bridge and reception gowns.

In a full range of street and evening shades, including the following: White, Cream, Ivory, Light Blue, Pink, Mauve, Niles, Catawba, Lavender, Coral, Apricot, Peach, Cardinal, Almond, Old Rose, Reseda, Acoma, Wistaria, Biscuit, Champagne, Tan, Brown, Green, Silver Gray, Pearl, Navy Blue, Black. Found Unconscious in Yard.

Mrs. Hunt, who is said to have been separated from her husband for nearly a year, has occupied a room with her son at the home of John G. Fagan for the past three months. Mr. and Mrs. Fagan went to church yesterday morning, leaving Mrs. Hunt and her child in the home alone. When Mr. and Mrs. Fagan returned from church some time later, Mrs. Hunt was found unconscious on the floor. She was taken to the Emergency Hospital and is now in an unconscious condition. She is said to be suffering from a slight concussion of the brain. The child was found slightly bruised. It was said at the hospital today that the mother's condition is greatly improved. She is in the "strong room" of the hospital "as a precautionary measure," the physicians say.

Dr. F. C. Hunt of Girard, Ohio, husband of Mrs. Hunt, has been notified of the accident, and the physicians at the hospital are awaiting his arrival in Washington.

Did Not Call Pastor.

The congregation of the Second Presbyterian Church did not extend a call to a pastor yesterday morning, as had been planned, but adjourned subject to the call of the clerk of the session. It is expected that the clerk will issue a call for a congregational meeting in the near future, when a call will be extended a minister to accept the pastorate of the local church.

The marriage of Miss Isabella Elizabeth Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sullivan, and Henry F. Mansfield took place this afternoon at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. A. D. Sullivan, and the ceremony was held at 1616 Duke street after Saturday next.

"I am guilty, judge, your honor," said Walter Cooper, colored, in the police court this morning, who was charged with the slaying of a man, Cooper told the jury that he had shot the man, but that he fired four shots in the house where he lives last Saturday "just to scare them." He denied shooting at any one in particular. The floor, ceiling and chairs came in for the spent bullets. The court imposed a fine of $10.
